Aloha,

Thank you so much for your very generous donation of $5,150.00 to A Cup of Cold Water on September 7, 2023. Your kindness truly will help this ministry continue serving the most downtrodden and desperate of our community. ACCW is 100% volunteer and accepts no government money.

You may already know there is no emergency shelter here on Maui, and the existing shelters require an extensive admission process and are limited as to whom, and how many people, they can accept. As such, there are many on the streets who would like to go into a shelter but are unable to do so.

ACCW now goes out regularly in the Central and South Maui areas serving many souls each week (lately up to 117 on one run) bringing, among other things, water, food, clothing, towels, blankets, footwear, tarps, toilet paper, pet food, hygiene items, and first aid items, but most of all – compassion. There are more priests going on runs now and offering prayers for healing and help. We encounter many people on the streets who cannot find housing with costs and rents beyond what many can afford, and, sadly, there are also those with mental health and addiction challenges who are unable to get help.

Thank you again for your support of ACCW! Your compassion makes it possible for ACCW to reach out and bring love and hope to the most suffering of our society.

Mahalo,
